

PREVENTION AND ELIMINATION OF FORCED LABOUR IN THAI FISHERIES

MRS. PETCHARAT SINAUY
DEPUTY PERMANENT SECRETARY,
MINISTRY OF LABOUR
THAILAND

THAILAND'S LABOUR SITUATION IN SEAFOOD PROCESSING & SEA FISHERY SECTORS

Number of Sea Fishery Workers

128,669

Thai

Migrant

Number of

Seafood Processing Workers

222,274

OPERATION ON ANTI-FORCED LABOUR IN THAI FISHERIES

BRING-IN PROCESS

- Regulate legal status of migrant workers
- Promote Bring-in Process via
 - MoU
 - Government to Government (G-to-G)

EMPLOYMENT

- Protecting rights and benefit according to laws
- Enforcing laws stringently
- Accelerating case prosecution
- Promoting good living quality
- Providing assistance and remedy

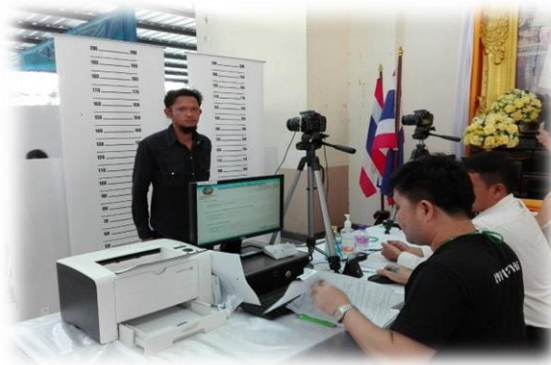

REPATRIATION

- Ensuring Safe Repatriation
- Ensuring rights & benefit coverage

PROTECTIVE MEASURE: BRING-IN PROCESS

- All workers are treated in equivalence manner.
- Accelerate the regularization for all migrant workers and systematically record their personal info. to create solid database.

- Promote bring-in process via MoU.
- Negotiate with sending countries to process bring in of migrant workers via Government-to-Government channel (G-to-G) for better protection and traceability.

PROTECTIVE MEASURES: EMPLOYMENT

- Labour inspection both in Port-in Port-out Centres (PIPO) and at sea.
- Perform stringent law enforcement and accelerate the case prosecution.
- Increase both capacity building and number of labour inspectors and language coordinators for effective operation.
- Revise Ministerial Regulation Concerning Labour Protection in Sea Fishery Work.
- Legislative amendment on labour protection and live quality improvement.
- Promote labour relations in sea fisheries.
- Protect and provide assistance for labour via various channels.

PROTECTIVE MEASURES: REPATRIATION

- Ensure all worker to access coverage of rights & benefits before their repatriation in line with laws and regulation; For example, wages and welfare.
- Perform the repatriation based on safe migration & in line with international standards

“Ensuring all migrant workers
to work legally,

Living in security & good life quality,

Safe Repatriation with fair condition”

